LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

(g.) To establish and provide all kinds of conveniences and attractions for tourists and others, and in particular reading, writing, dancing, and smoking rooms, lockers, and safe-deposits, telephones, telegraphs, stores, shops, lodgings, and lavatories:

(h.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia and elsewhere the business of brokers in all its branches whatsoever, and also the business of agents for loan and trust companies, agents for fire, life, accident, automobile, plate-glass, and marine insurance companies, and agents for any other branch of the insurance business whatsoever:

(i.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia and elsewhere the business of real-estate and personal-estate agents and brokers, and all branches of the said business whatsoever:

(j.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere the business of a finance company and to make advances or loans upon or to purchase or discount agreements made in respect of the sale of automobiles, trucks, motor-vehicles of every description, aircraft, and other vehicles of transportation; and to make advances or loans upon the security of automobiles, trucks, motor-vehicles, aircraft, and other vehicles of transportation:

(k.) To make advances or loans upon the security of any goods, wares, merchandise, machinery, automobiles, and other vehicles, and to purchase or otherwise acquire any chattel mortgage, sale agreement, lien note, or other security upon any such property:

(l.) To buy, sell, exchange, and deal in accounts receivable, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, hire receipts, chattel mortgages, lien notes, conditional-sale agreements, and other securities in respect of the same or any of them; to take any of the said securities or other commercial paper in payment for the sale of any personal property; and to sell, charge, or hypothecate any of the said securities on personal property received in the course of its business:

(m.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this Company or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of another company or cash, as the Company may think fit; and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(n.) To guarantee and become surety for the performance of any contract, obligation, or undertaking made or to be made by any person, firm, or corporation whatsoever, and to secure the performance thereof by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property or assets of the Company, including its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever; provided that nothing herein contained shall confer on the Company the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the "Insurance Act," chapter 133, "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936":

(o.) To purchase, take in exchange, lease, or otherwise acquire, mortgage, manage, improve, turn to account, sell, or otherwise deal in any real or personal property, securities, and any rights or privileges appertaining thereto which the Company may deem to be necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business or otherwise, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, water rights, water privileges, machinery, plant, tools and implements, and stock-in-trade; and the consideration for same may be cash or shares of the Company, or part cash and part shares:

(p.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of lands, rights, or other property or effects of the Company or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon:

(q.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects or otherwise in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(r.) To register or license the Company in any part of the British Empire or elsewhere:

(s.) The word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereof shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company), but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

(h.) To grant to ticket-holders and others any special privileges and advantages, and to make arrangements with persons engaged in any trade, business, or profession for the concession to the Company's members, ticket-holders, and their friends, and others, of any special privileges or advantages:

(i.) To act as and to carry on the business of general agents, commission agents, vessel agents, cartage agents, carterers, customs-brokers, wharfingers, warehousemen, assemblers and distributors of all kinds of commodities, forwarders, ship-owners, and carriers by land, water, and air:

(j.) To carry on the business of a promoter, organizer, and manager of financial, industrial, mercantile, and other companies and corporations:

(k.) To allot and credit, as fully or partly paid up, the shares or debentures of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services or other valuable consideration:

(l.) To make gifts and donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever, whether such person, firm, or corporation be a member of this Company or not:

(m.) To carry on the business of general merchants in all its branches:

(n.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in every paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company; and none of such paragraphs, nor the objects therein specified, nor the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or ancillary merely to the objects mentioned in the first paragraph of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first paragraph of this clause.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 15899.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Securities Foundation, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 1st day of September, 1937.

The authorized capital of the Company is two hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand preference shares of one hundred dollars each and one hundred thousand common shares of one dollar each.

The address of its registered office is 829 Pender Street West, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To issue on commission, subscribe for, take, acquire, and hold, buy, sell, exchange, and deal in shares, stocks, bonds, obligations, or securities of any person, Government, authority, or company, and to form, promote, subsidize, and assist companies, syndicates, and partnerships of all kinds, and generally to carry on and undertake any business, undertaking, transaction, or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by capitalists, stock-brokers, promoters, financiers, concessionaires, agents, and contractors for public works other than banking or insurance or trust business as defined by the "Trust Companies Act":

(b.) To carry on a general brokerage business, which, without limiting the generality of the foregoing words, shall include the business of lumber, timber, oil, gas, mines, stock, share, real estate, insurance, and financial broker in all their respective branches (subject to the provisions of the "Insurance Act"), and to buy or sell, either outright or on commission or profit, and generally to deal in lumber, timber, timber lands, timber limits, mines and mineral lands, oil and gas lands, real estate or other property, and commodities or any interest therein, and to make investigations and valuations thereof:

(c.) To carry on the business of fire-insurance brokers, agents, inspectors, and adjusters in all their various branches, and to represent any and all companies, firms, or individuals engaged in any branch of the said business, and to accept or pay any commissions or other remunerations for services rendered (subject to the "Insurance Act"):

(d.) To act as agents or attorneys for the management of estates, the sale of property, the investments, handling, loans, payment, transmission, and collection of moneys, rents, interests, dividends, mortgages, bonds, debentures, and other securities, and the undertaking of investigations, valuations, sales, exchanges, leases, subdivisions, and the like, and to carry on the business of general brokers and agents (other than banking or trust business as defined by the "Trust Companies Act"):

(e.) To acquire and hold shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, obligations, and securities issued or guaranteed by any company, wheresoever constituted or carrying on business, and debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, and securities issued and secured by any Government, commissioners, public body or authority, supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise:

(f.) To carry on the business of importers and exporters of and to buy, sell, and deal in all kinds and descriptions of goods, wares, and merchandise, and to carry on the business of custom-house brokers, warehousemen, forwarders, carters, and other like businesses, and to sell, buy, and generally deal in wares, merchandise, articles, or effects directly or indirectly relating to any of the said businesses:

(g.) To carry on all kinds of exploration business, and in particular to search for, prospect, examine, and explore mines and grounds supposed to contain minerals or precious stones, and to search for and obtain information in regard to mines, mining claims, mining districts and localities; to purchase, take on lease, and otherwise acquire any mines, mining rights, and metalliferous lands and any interest therein, and to explore, work, exercise, develop, and turn to account the same:

(h.) To crush, win, get, quarry, smelt, calcine, refine, dress, and amalgamate, manipulate, and to prepare for market ore, metal, and mineral substances of all kinds, and to carry on any other metallurgical operations which may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects:

(i.) To search for and perfect, examine and explore, work, take on lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire lands and places which may seem to the Company capable or possibly capable of supporting a supply of mineral oil or natural gas, and to establish, utilize, and turn to account pumping-stations, pump-lines, and other works and conveniences suitable for the purpose:

(j.) To carry on the business of extracting, pumping, drawing, transporting, and purifying and dealing in petroleum and other mineral oils and natural gas:

(k.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated and whether domiciled in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in every paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company, and none of such paragraphs, nor the objects therein specified, nor the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or ancillary merely to the objects mentioned in the first paragraph of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first paragraph of this clause.
